From our school Principal

In Preparation—Jane Scupham

In Advent we cry out, "Come, O come Emmanuel! Come, visit us and bring your peace to hearts filled with the cares and troubles of our lives. Let us become a holding place for you as we begin this blessed season."

-from Let Us Adore Him

Cleaning

It's a word that can strike dread in the hearts of some and pleasure in others. I'm someone who has to be in the mood for it and once whatever it is that needed cleaning is sparkling, I wonder why I didn't do it sooner. Once when I was on an antiquing outing with friends, we came across some sets of vintage dishtowels embroidered with a sweet puppy performing a household task for each day of the week. After we all marveled over the cute design and the shame of someone's beautifully executed stitchery ending up for sale in a shop, I couldn't help but feel that the puppy looked way too happy on the cleaning day towel, but maybe he likes the end results too.

Cleaning

Tidy up those items in disarray, straighten those pictures, polish the furniture, and bring new life and light to the space that was once dark and disorderly. This is what we as Christians are called to do during Advent—a spiritual cleaning—a cleaning of the heart to make room for our Savior to reside within. A spiritual cleaning checklist, although not embroidered on towels, might look like this:

- Sweep away those thoughts that keep you from building relationships
- Polish your language so your words bring happiness and hope
- Spritz the room you're in with a joyful attitude
- Rub away your imperfections first before looking to find others'
- Shine your e-mails so they spread the Good News
- Prepare your heart to be receive God's unbounded love

Cleaning--it's worth it!

Coaches' Pride— Coach Ruiz

Going into the Thanksgiving Break our sixth grade Panther boys basketball team is the only undefeated 6th grade CYO team at 7-0. "We have really come together as a team" says Coach Fred Ruiz. "Each player is contributing and making a difference on the court. Our starters Sam Ruiz at point, Patrick Sayers at guard, Michael Zajac at center and forwards Will Ruiz and Jason Isley are doing a great job moving the ball around, but it's our improving bench players Amol Verma and Robert Pruzin and Evan Hartman that are helping to keep us ahead for the whole game".

Coach Zajac agrees, "Through seven games I could not be more proud this season. Each boy has shown improvement and done what their coaches have needed them to do."

"It's our ability to adapt that has really impressed me," says Coach Mario Ruiz. "The St. Casimir team was really huge, but we worked the ball around and used our speed to get buckets. We just have so many different capabilities." So please give a fist bump to your 6th grade Panthers, and let's cheer them on to keep the great season going through the tournament.

Good Competition — Coach Cavanaugh

The 7th grade boys (Cavanaugh Team) played their best competition of the season this weekend and defeated St. Michael's on Saturday 24-18 and lost to St. John Baptist 30-9. In the win on Saturday, Jack Barone scored 11 points, Tommy Cavanaugh 9 points and Dylan Radinsky scored 4 points. William Bogan, Bobby Woodburn and Eli Sewell made the difference on defense in the first half holding St. Mike's to only 7 points. In the loss on Saturday, the Panthers struggled offensively but were led in scoring with a great effort by Carlo Barone with 5 points. The Panthers are now 6-1 on the season!

Tarnow Report— Coach Tarnow

The 7th grade Tarnow basketball team defeated St. Mary Griffith last Saturday, November 22nd. 47-18. The boys played great defense as everyone scored. Brandon Mack led the way with 25.

The Panthers defeated St Mary CP on Sunday 57-11. Everyone on the team scored at least 4 points in a total team victory! The team is at 8-0.

Great Overtime Victory!!— Caeden Meade

Saturday, November 22nd, the St. Paul 5th grade boys' basketball team (Meade/Boxum) beat St. Michael's in overtime with a score of 18-13! Our scorers were Michael Seymour with 2, Jacob Marcyda with 2, Cameron Meade with 1, Caeden Meade with 3 and Brady Byvoets with 10 points!!! The whole team helped out with strong defense, advancing the Panthers' record to 5 and 2. Way to go Panthers!! Let's have a great rest of the season!

An Undefeated Team— Jason Isley

Over the weekend of November 22nd and 23rd, the 6th grade boys' basketball team played two terrific games. The first was against Nativity with 19 points scored in all. Sam Ruiz contributed 7 points, Will Ruiz added 10 points, and Jason Isley added 2 points.

Then, on Sunday, the team played an amazing game against St. Casimir. The Panthers won with 39 points. Sam Ruiz scored 18 points, and Will Ruiz chipped in 9 points. Michael Zajac added 6 points to the win. Both games were wonderful and the coaching was amazing.
